has not returned from Chatman since the Christmas holidays. Whother he has been engaged in the preparation of his inaugural address or has merely been trying to escape the importunities of office-seekers is not known. Certain it is that by reason of his prolonged stay at home he has missed seeing many persons who have come here to lay before him their claims or the claims of friends for places in the new State administration.

Representative Jones said to-day he did not know that he would have anything to say during the debate now pending on the Philippine tariff bill in Committee of the Whole. As sentor Democratic member of the Committee on Insular Affairs, Mr. Jones is especially well informed concerning conditions in the archipelago, and visited the islands last summer with the Taft party, obtaining a great deal of information concerning economic conditions in the Philippines. He said he preferred to discuss bills emanuting from the Insular Committee, several of which have been reported. So far as the present bill, reducing the tariff on sugar and tobacco imported from the Philippines, is concerned, Mr. Jones thinks its passage would accomplish good in an indirect way, in that it would make the beet sugar Republicans favor our getting rid of the islands, The insurrection of the beet sugar members—that is, the Republicans from the Northwestern States—is a striking condition of inter-day polities in Washington. They claim, to have the bill beaten, but there is a very great doubt of this. It will probably pass, as it has the sanction of the Committee on Ways and Means, the chairman of which, Mr. Payne, the floor leader of the Republicans is leading the fight for it.

Bull Type Next Time, Colonel. Not a word of news, said Represent-ve Slemp, the lone Republican member from Virginia, or the entire South, for that matter, when I accosted him at the that matter, when I accosted him at the Capitot to-day. "I wouldn't give it to you if there were news. You fellows are not my friends. You say I am losing my influence in Washington with the President. I'll show you. But I would give you any news," And the colonel used real naughty language. And the correspondent went away heavy-hearted, for it is recorded on the tablets of his memory that on one occasion-Mr. Slemp had given out an item which was worthy of gates to international conferences, by exchanges with foreign representatives, or through the employment of secret agents, if need be, and that it would be highly improper for the Senate to interfere in any manner. Arguing that the interests of the United States in Morocco are purely commercial, Senator Spooner said it was the duty of the President to see that these are not obstructed by European Interests.

COSTLIEST BOOK EVER PRINTED CLIMING HERE

Catalogue of Bishop, Collection of Jade, Costing $100,000, For State Library.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, January 9.—The most costly book ever printed has just been shown in the Museum of Natural History by Dr. George F. Kunz, who had charge of the principal features of the work. It is a cataiogue in two volumes of the Heber R. Bishop collection of jade objects, which has no rival in the world, and which was presented to the Metropolitan Museum of Art by the late Mr. Bishop, together with $55,000 to provide a suitable room for the objects, and nearly as much more for their maintenance.

This Rs It a Joke.

Mr. Rogers again declined while on the stock own-serbly of the three companies, and was severly admonished by Mr. Hadley to retail the hearing seriously, and not as "funny." A number of other Etandard Oli officials and employes were examined, but declined to answer most of Mr. Hadley to-night that he has been unable to get Mr. Pierce, who, he said, had sailed away on a steam yacht.

This remarkable catalogue has taken yacht. This remarkable catalogue has taken twenty-five fears to prepare it. It is printed on the fluest linen paper, bound in green levant, each copy containing 570 pages and weighing 124 pounds. Only one hundred copies have been printed, and the cost has been $100,000, or $1,000 a copy. There are 150 full page illustrations by artists of Europe, Asia and America.

Powerless Commissioner.

No matter in what form the question has been put, Mr. Rogers has declined to answer it. The commissioner before whom the evidence is being taken it without power to compel an answer, but the Suprome Court possesses the authority to order Mr. Rogers to be punished for contempt of court if he declines to answer after being ordered to do so by that court. An interesting feature of the hearing to-day was an invitation sent by Mr. Hadley to Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, Hadley to Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, requesting him to come to New York and teatify, if he can give any information as to the three companies Mr. Hadley is trying to drive out of Missouri. When the hearing adjourned to-night Mr. Lawson's reply had not been received.

NEW YCRK, January 19.—While the steamer City of Atlanta was leaving port this afternoon bound to Savannah, she met with a mishap which caused her commander, Captian Pisher, to put the vessel about and return to her pier. It is believed that the steamer struck a submerged wreck in the lower bay and was damaged to such an extent that an examination below the water line was thought advisable.
